

What is Title I?

The Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 established the following:

All children should have fair and equal access to a high-quality education

All children should have the opportunity to be proficient in state academic achievement standards.

Title I schools are identified by the percentage of students who are at or below a specific socioeconomic level.

Title I schools qualify to receive additional federal funding under this act.

What requirements are there for Title I schools?

1. To maintain a highly qualified staff that is dedicated to providing students with an excellent education.
2. To work with our parents and guardians to conduct an annual review of our Parent Involvement Policy, and to revise it as necessary
3. To work with our parents and guardians to conduct an annual review of our Parent/Student/Teacher compact, and to revise it as necessary
4. To develop an annual Single Plan for Student Achievement which identifies how we support students
5. To communicate with parents effectively, and to give required notifications

Assessments

Formative:

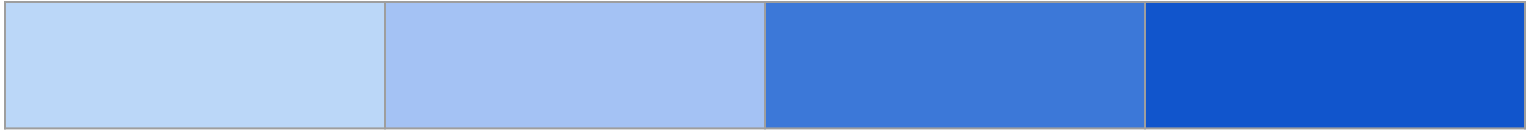

Teacher check students' understanding of their learning throughout the school day and week. We use this information to decide what to do next.

Summative

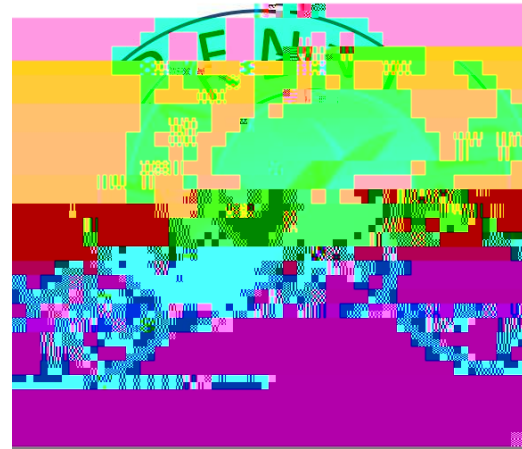

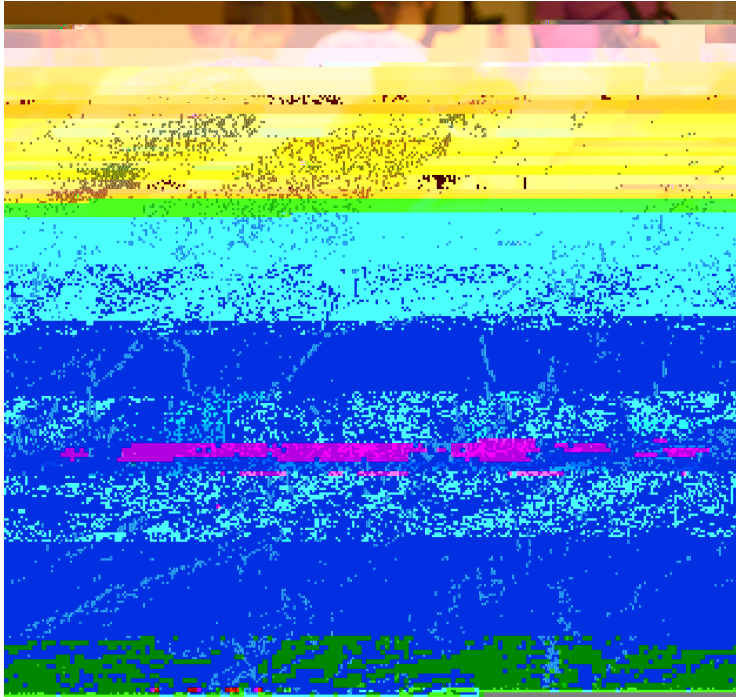

Chapter tests, unit tests, and District Benchmark exams provide more comprehensive information on students' overall progress.

State tests

Reading the CAASPP Results

YOU Have the RIGHT to be INVOLVED, and WE SUPPORT that RIGHT!!!

Ways for Parents and Guardians to be involved in our school:

Be present at drop off and pick up times, and report any concerns to a staff member

Communicate with your child's teacher

Attend events such as Family Education Night and Open House

Complete Parent Surveys and send them in on time

Participate in the PTA

Attend English Learner Advisory Committee (ELAC) meetings

Run for School Site Council

Make sure your child eats breakfast every day

Monitor your child's progress, and let the teacher know if you have concerns

Take part in our Parental Involvement Policy revision process beginning in January, 2016
